UNITED STATES CENTS.

A number of Dr. Lathrop's Cents have been recolored and, in some instances, rough surfaces made smooth. This process, often detrimental, is by the skillful Detroit method an improvement. Some of the specimens of this workmanship shown at the last Numismatic Convention were pronounced remarkable. "Rcd." in following lots stands for "Recolored," mostly in handsome olive.

408 1793. Chain. Obverse very good, slight dent and scratch back of head. Rev., fair, part of legend missing.

409 1793. Wreath. Broad head, large leaves. Very fair except date, which is very weak. Large dent on reverse edge.

410 1793. Wreath. Stem upright above 9. Lettered edge type but with vine and bars. Fine, light brown.

411 1794. Fallen 4. Very good.

412 1794. Varieties. One is Hays 13. Very good and good. 2 pcs.
